Moving to Our Lady of Victory (OLV)

As we advance into the holy season of Pentecost and meditate upon the Church in its mission and ministry of evangelization, we must remember that God who worked through the Apostles and the early Church is still active today, in our times and in our Church.

Jesus often exhorted his disciples to read the "signs of the times." In that spirit, we are thrilled to announce what we may truly consider a divine sign for our Maronite community, as we approach our move to Our Lady of Victory Church.

As of July 16, our Mission will be headquartered at Our Lady of Victory (1559 Roxbury Rd), where we will celebrate our Maronite Divine Liturgy every Sunday at 11:30 a.m.

This will be a great opportunity for our Mission to grow, as more ministries will be made available with the new facilities, and a morning Mass schedule that is more convenient for everyone, especially families.

We are looking forward to joining the local community at OLV, where together with our Roman Catholic brethren in Christ we can be one family whose members love the Lord and love each other.

First Reading: 1Corinthians 2:1-10

When I came to you, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom.

For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish.

But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.

None of the rulers of this age understood this;

for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,

nor the human heart conceived,

what God has prepared for those who love him”

— these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit;

for the Spirit searches everything,

even the depths of God.

The Gospel: John 14:21-27

“They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?” Jesus answered him, “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.

Whoever does not love me does not keep my words;

and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you.

But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.

I do not give to you as the world gives.

Do not let your hearts be troubled,

and do not let them be afraid.”

NAM Convention 2023

You are cordially invited to the 58th Annual National Maronite Convention

July 5-9 2023 - Rhode Island

Preserving Maronite Traditions Since 1964

The National Apostolate of Maronites (NAM) is the official lay apostolate of the Maronite Church of the USA and the only one in the world.

Its mission is to foster, connect, and strengthen the Maronite community in the United States. It encourages and promotes religious, educational, and cultural growth and seeks to preserve Maronite heritage for future generations.

For many, NAM's most important events are its national and regional conventions, where the Maronite Faithful are gathered along with our bishops and clergy for spiritual renewal, educational growth and social fellowship. It's a great place to make new connections with fellow Maronites from all ages all over the US.
